Credit China to be Renamed as “Credit China FinTech” and Proposes 1 into 5 Share Split

(21 August 2016, Hong Kong) Credit China Holdings Limited (“Credit China” or the “Company”; together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”, stock code: 8207), a leading integrated Fintech service provider in China, is pleased to announce that the Group intends to rename itself “中國信貸科技控股有限公司” in Chinese and “Credit China FinTech Holdings Limited” in English, with an aim to better reflect the Group’s current business model and strategic business plan in the fintech space.

Separately, the Group proposed a share subdivision of 1 share of HK$0.10 each in the Company into 5 subdivided shares of HK$0.02 each. Upon the proposed share subdivision becoming effective, the board lot size for trading will remain unchanged with 4,000 subdivided shares for each board lot.

Mr. Li Mingshan, Chairman of Credit China, said, “Over the past three years, the Group has successfully built an integrated online payment, payment collections and online financial service platforms leveraging on the company’s expertise in traditional financing services. Fintech business revenues have become our main growth drivers today. The proposed new name will better reflect the Group’s business activities. The revised share division will allow easier and greater investor access.”
