

Credit China FinTech Opens Regional Office in Singapore Well Positioned to Capture Opportunities in FinTech across Asia

Credit China FinTech (and its subsidiaries the “Group”) (“CCF”, stock code: 8207.hk) is pleased to announce that it has officially opened its Southeast Asia regional office in Singapore today, marking another milestone as part of the Group’s strategy to grow and expand beyond its core market in China. Located at Raffles City, the Singapore office will serve as the Group’s regional hub, with a focus on the fast growing FinTech sectors in Singapore and beyond.

CCF’s Southeast Asia regional office in Singapore

Mr. Phang Yew Kiat, vice-chairman and chief executive officer of Credit China FinTech, said, “As a regional hub, Singapore has been a leader in the development of FinTech. With its strong FinTech ecosystem infrastructure and favorable regulatory environment, Singapore is a natural choice for our base in Southeast Asia and will serve as a springboard for our expansion in the region. We are well positioned to provide convenient, value-add financial services to the region’s different sectors and to promote the development of inclusive finance across Asia.
